Dear Harold,

Matt Herron has some old correspondance with you which he would like to share with me ---letters of the period in question. Quite properly, he does not want to do so, however, without your permission.

I would be very grateful if you would drop him a note saying it's ok for me to see copies of what he has. He has been quite wonderful, by the way, and you know how short in supply such people are.

I hope that you are holding your own. I'm off shortly to Louisiana.

Envelope addressed to Matt enclosed, for your convenience.

Warm regards,

Joan Mellen
